ALMA MATER

Alma, our Alma Mater,
The home of Mountaineers.
Sing we of thy honor,
Everlasting through the years.
Alma, our Alma Mater,
We pledge in song to you.
Hail, all hail, our Alma Mater,
West Virginia “U.”

—Louis Corson
Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! You have worked hard to reach this day – the day you become a graduate of West Virginia University.

Your hard work, perseverance, and enthusiasm for learning helped to get you to this point. With these qualities and the knowledge and skills acquired at WVU, you can achieve great things.

To families and friends who are with us today to celebrate – thank you! You have played a critical role in helping students succeed in college, and you share credit for helping our students reach this monumental point in their lives.

Graduates, you now belong to our worldwide alumni family of 175,000. Please stay in touch with us, and wear your flying WV with pride wherever your dreams may take you.

Please visit us often. You always have a home here at WVU - where we are united in Mountaineer spirit.

Best wishes for continued success. We are proud to call you one of our own.

Let’s Go Mountaineers!

James P. Clements, Ph.D.
President
Dear Graduates:
Congratulations on your graduation – you are now officially a member of the alumni family. Our more than 175,000 graduates proudly represent their alma mater in various professions, including science, business, sports, education, and performing arts to name a few.

As you prepare for the next leg of your journey, we want you to stay connected and involved in the life of WVU. Your first-year membership in the WVU Alumni Association is provided to you at no cost. We encourage you to take advantage of the many benefits:

• Download the WVU Alumni Association’s mobile app (available on iTunes) or via our Web site – http://alumni.wvu.edu
• Join the Mountaineer Connection – www.mountaineerconnection.com – to stay on top of the latest news and events, keep your connections with classmates, get a permanent WVU e-mail address, and much more.
• Get involved in a chapter. The Alumni Association has more than 100 chapter and constituent groups who provide professional and social networking opportunities for fellow Mountaineers.
• Visit the Young Alumni web site – http://youngalumni.wvu.edu – a site designed with our newest grads in mind.

No matter where you go, remember you are forever a Mountaineer. We hope you will stay connected to your WVU family and take advantage of the opportunities available to you. Again, congratulations on your graduation. Let’s Go Mountaineers!

In Mountaineer Spirit,

PARKING

Parking at all Commencement venues is free for graduates, guests and other participants. It is available on a first-come, first served basis. Please tune to 1610 AM for instructions and updates on parking lot capacity status.

GOLD AND BLUE STUDENT AMBASSADORS

Gold and Blue Student Ambassadors will be on-site to assist you as you park and make your way to the various venues. If you have questions along the way, be sure to stop and ask—they’ll be happy to assist you. They can be identified by their khaki pants and white polo with Gold and Blue Student Ambassador insignia and nametag.

DISABILITY-RELATED ACCOMMODATIONS

If you made arrangements with WVU’s Office of Disability Services, please follow the instructions you were provided before arriving at your Commencement ceremony. If you did not make arrangements prior to the event, please see a Gold and Blue Student Ambassador who will assist you. Please note that accessible seating is limited and available on a first-come, first served basis.

GRADUATE ARRIVAL

We recommend that graduates arrive 1 hour prior to the start of their ceremonies. This will allow for sufficient time for check in and line up.

PHOTOGRAPHY

West Virginia University is pleased to announce that it has partnered with GradImages to capture the special memories of 2011 Commencement Weekend. A photograph of each student will be taken as he/she crosses the stage and receives his/her diploma. Additional shots will also be offered, depending on the venue.

Following Commencement Weekend, graduates will be sent an electronic copy and hard copy of their photo proofs. All electronic communication will be private and secure. Electronic proofs can be expected within 24 hours of the conclusion of each ceremony, and you can expect your order to arrive within 5-7 days of placing the order. Electronic proofs will be sent to the e-mail address indicated by the graduate.

For complete information, please visit www.gradimages.com.

DECORUM & COURTESIES

West Virginia University asks that all guests remain in their designated seating areas during the ceremony. Due to security and safety concerns, guests are not permitted to approach the stage to take personal photos, present gifts to, or congratulate their graduates. We appreciate your cooperation. We also ask that you refrain from using air horns or other noise-making devices as the graduates are recognized individually. It is important to each family to hear their graduate’s name called. Graduates are required to remain with their class through the duration of the ceremony. Also, please turn your cell phone to ‘silent’ during the ceremony.

FLORAL SALES

Flowers will be available for purchase on-site at the three primary commencement venues: the Coliseum, Creative Arts Center, and the Morgantown Event Center. A variety of options will be available for under $30 including single, three, and half dozen roses and a colorful spring bouquet, and they will come in custom blue and gold packaging. Cash only will be accepted. Proceeds will benefit West Virginia University’s Horticulture Club and Plant and Soil Sciences Club, who will be on-site.

LOST AND FOUND

Following the weekend’s ceremonies, inquiries about lost and found items should be directed to 304-293-7132. Unclaimed items will be retained for 90 days and then donated to an appropriate outlet.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

In the case of an emergency, event staff will guide guests and graduates to the nearest exit. If medical attention is needed, EMS is on site and available to assist. Please seek out a Gold and Blue Student Ambassador or other event or University staff so they may contact the detachment.

FEEDBACK

Following Commencement Weekend, a survey will be posted at http://commencement.wvu.edu to gather your feedback on your experience. West Virginia University encourages graduates, participants and guests to complete the online form. Event organizers have been able to make improvements and implement several suggestions based on input given in past surveys.
Commencement Traditions at West Virginia University

THE SEAL
West Virginia University's seal was adopted by the WVU Board of Regents on June 15, 1869. The center of the seal includes an outline of the campus (then only Woodburn Circle), hills behind the buildings to reflect the institution's stability, and a rising sun to indicate its prosperity. The motto in the inner circle in Greek translates to: “Add to your faith virtue and to virtue knowledge” (from 2 Peter 1:5 in the King James Bible). The outer circle in Latin translates to: “Seal of the West Virginia University. Established 7 February, 1867.”

The Regents' original, handwritten resolution adopting the seal is located in the University Archives in the WVU Wise Library.

THE MACE
The mace is a symbolic tradition that originated during the Middle Ages. The ornamental staff of authority is brought to the platform by the University Marshal who, to signify the beginning of the ceremony, taps it thrice and places it in the holder. The mace used in official ceremonies at West Virginia University was handcrafted by a WVU professor. It represents the official authority of the University president and precedes him or her at academic ceremonies, including Commencement and inaugurations. When the president is not in attendance, smaller batons are used to signify the designation of authority.

MARSHALS
The tradition of academic marshals comes from storied English universities. The Grand Marshal is the chief protocol officer who coordinates the ceremonial traditions of Commencement, including the processional and recessional. The Grand Marshal is also responsible for the school's relics, including the mace and batons. University marshals are typically members of the faculty body. Schools and colleges may also select their own faculty and student marshals to help facilitate their individual ceremonies.

ACADEMIC PROCESSIONAL AND REGALIA
The sequence of the processional is as follows: members of the platform party, deans, faculty, degree candidates, honored guests, and presiding officer, such as the University president or provost.

The history of the academic regalia worn today at American college exercises dates back in its essential features to the Middle Ages. The oldest universities of northern Europe evolved from ecclesiastical institutions, and during the early days, both faculty and students were regarded as part of the clergy. Hence they wore clerical garb, largely borrowed from the monastic dress of their day, not merely on special occasions, but as their regular costume.

The head-covering of the academic costume was developed from the skullcap worn by the clergy in cold weather to protect their tonsured heads. In the universities this skullcap acquired a point on top, which gradually evolved into a tassel. The bonnet with tassel is still worn by some; however, for the most part it has been replaced by the more familiar mortarboard.

The gown worn today seems to have been borrowed from the habit worn by Benedictine monks. No trimming is found on the bachelor's and master's gowns. For those holding doctoral degrees, the gown is faced down the front and trimmed on the sleeves with velvet.

Today's hood is colored according to the scholarly field of the individual and bears, on the inner liner, the official colors of the institution that conferred the degree.

The West Virginia University ceremonial regalia consists of a blue gown with blue velvet trim, a gold and blue hood, and a blue hat. This regalia is worn by members of the platform party, special guests, and members of the University administration.
George B. Bennett

West Virginia University would like to recognize Dr. George B. Bennett with an honorary degree. Dr. Bennett has been a leading thinker and entrepreneur bringing his background in engineering and analytics to consult on national and global issues; including healthcare and education.

Dr. Bennett earned a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering from West Virginia University in 1967 and a master's degree (1970) and doctoral degree (1971) in industrial administration from Carnegie Mellon University.

In 1982, Dr. Bennett was inducted into the WVU Distinguished Alumni Academy of Industrial and Management Systems Engineering. Dr. Bennett serves on the board of directors of a number of organizations, including the Disease Management Association of America, the National Youth Science Foundation; and Urban Improv, a Boston-based not-for-profit organization focused on improving the odds for Boston's inner city youth.

For more than 35 years Dr. Bennett has been a successful serial entrepreneur. Early in his career in 1973, he co-founded Bain and Company, a large top-tier international consulting firm, and Braxton Associates in 1976, a boutique strategy consulting firm with a reputation for innovation and creativity. Both companies are two highly regarded international strategy consulting firms that have dramatically impacted Fortune 500-scale firms around the world. Later in 1985, he co-founded Symmetrix, a management consulting firm that specialized in helping firms translate innovative strategies into cost-effective operating practices. He served as Symmetrix’s chairman and chief executive officer from 1985 to 1996.

Dr. Bennett also co-founded Health Dialog Services Corporation in 1997. The firm is a leading healthcare services company that is having a dramatic impact on the way healthcare is delivered in the U.S., several European countries; and Australia. Dr. Bennett served as both the CEO and chairman of the board from 1997 until January 2008 when the firm was sold to Bupa, a large British-owned global provider of healthcare services. He currently serves as chairman of the firm’s board of directors.

In the early 1980s, Dr. Bennett spent a year in Washington as a member of the Grace Commission, a commission created by President Ronald Reagan, to bring state-of-the-art business practices to the federal government. Bennett has remained active in Washington and has been an active participant in the ongoing debate regarding health reform.

West Virginia University feels that Dr. George B. Bennett has attained national and international pre-eminence in his field while provided distinguished leadership in society and philanthropic support of engineering at WVU.

Thomas E. Menighan

West Virginia University would like to recognize Thomas E. Menighan with an honorary degree. His contributions as a prominent pharmacist have positively impacted the health care industry in America.

Thomas E. Menighan is the Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of the American Pharmacists Association, assuming this position in July 2009. Mr. Menighan received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy (BSPharm) in 1974 from West Virginia University School of Pharmacy and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) in 1990 from Averett College. In May 2010, he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Science degree by the University of Charleston (WV).

Mr. Menighan is also a Fellow of the American Pharmacists Association. Prior to rejoining APhA, Mr. Menighan was President of SynTegra Solutions Inc., in Germantown, Maryland. The company provides supply chain and chargeback auditing and consulting in risk management, 340B Systems, anti-counterfeiting, and the technology of medication information. Mr. Menighan founded SymRx, Inc., and developed CornerDrugstore.com®.

Throughout his career, Mr. Menighan has served volunteer roles within the profession of pharmacy, including president of APhA from 2001 to 2002 and a member of the APhA Board of Trustees between 1995 and 2003. He was a senior staff member of APhA from 1987 to 1992. While on staff as Senior Director of External Affairs, he managed state affairs, public relations, new business development and practice management issues. Other professional experiences include management of the PharMark Corporation, creator of RationalMed®, and licensed systems for states to conduct Drug Utilization Review for millions of state Medicaid enrollees. Mr. Menighan also founded and was a 20-year Medicine Shoppe owner in Huntington, West Virginia, and is a partner in Pharmacy Associates, Inc., a multi-state specialty pharmacy that today serves patients in much of the United States.

West Virginia University feels that Thomas E. Menighan has attained national pre-eminence in the health care industry and has routinely supported his alma mater through his past and current activities and is deserving of an honorary degree from the institution.
Henry T. Yang

West Virginia University would like to recognize Dr. Henry T. Yang with an honorary degree. Dr. Yang is an accomplished leader in higher education and the field of aeronautical engineering.

Henry T. Yang has served as the chancellor of the University of California, Santa Barbara since 1994. He was formerly the Neil A. Armstrong Distinguished Professor of Aeronautics and Astronautics at Purdue University, where he also served as the dean of engineering for 10 years. He received his B.S.C.E. degree from National Taiwan University, his master's degree in structural engineering from West Virginia University, and his Ph.D. from Cornell University.

Dr. Yang has served on scientific advisory boards for various government agencies. He currently chairs the Association of Pacific Rim Universities, and is immediate past chair of the Association of American Universities. He also serves on the President’s Committee for the National Medal of Science and the Kavli Foundation board, and is chairman of the board for the Thirty Meter Telescope project.

Dr. Yang has authored or co-authored more than 170 articles for scientific journals, as well as a widely used textbook on finite element structural analysis. He has also served as P.I. or co-P.I. for 32 sponsored research grants, guided 53 Ph.D. theses, and received 13 outstanding undergraduate teaching awards. He continues to teach an undergraduate engineering course each year, and is currently supervising four Ph.D. students with support from National Science Foundation grants.

Dr. Yang is a member of the National Academy of Engineering and a Fellow of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, the American Society for Engineering Education, and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He has received numerous awards for his research, teaching, and service, including the Benjamin Garver Lamme gold medal from the American Society of Engineering Education and the 2008 Structures, Structural Dynamics, and Materials Award from the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics. He holds honorary doctorates from Purdue University, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, National Taiwan University, City University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, and now West Virginia University.

West Virginia University feels that Dr. Henry T. Yang has attained international pre-eminence in the fields of aerospace and structural engineering, as well as higher education, and is deserving of an honorary degree from the institution

2011 Order of Vandalia Honorees

The Order of Vandalia is West Virginia University's highest award for service to the University. The Order includes a long line of dedicated Mountaineers who have impacted the University through outstanding service. During Commencement Weekend each year, they are inducted into this elite group in a ceremony hosted by WVU's Alumni Association.

Jorea M. Marple

Jorea M. Marple took over as West Virginia’s 27th state superintendent of schools on March 1, 2011. As superintendent, she oversees West Virginia’s public school system, which includes 55 individual school districts, serving about 282,000 students in preschool through 12th grade.

Marple, a published author on effective school leadership, has more than 35 years of experience as a classroom teacher, reading specialist, university instructor, principal, assistant county superintendent, county superintendent, assistant state superintendent and deputy state superintendent. She has a doctorate in education administration from West Virginia University, a Master of Arts in reading from WVU, and a bachelor’s degree in elementary education at Fairmont State University.

Marple has experience in West Virginia schools in Marion, Monongalia, Greenbrier, and Kanawha counties. Her responsibilities have included working to create the state’s 21st-century learning program, “Global 21: Students deserve it. The world demands it.” The plan, which has garnered West Virginia national and international attention, includes increased rigor and relevance and incorporated real-world learning and performance skills, such as problem solving and creative thinking, into state standards.

She has also been involved in the state Department of Education’s work with pre-K programs, school technology implementation, school leadership development programs, reading initiatives, and teacher quality efforts.

On the national front, Marple served as a leader within the National Urban and Suburban School Association. She was invited to participate in both the Columbia and Harvard universities’ superintendent academies. She has worked with the U.S. Department of Education, Partnership for 21st Century Skills, Council of Chief State School Officers, other state departments of education, the State Educational Technology Directors Association, the National Association of Test Directors, the National Association of Special Education Teachers, and the National Staff Development Council. She also has been honored as a YWCA Woman of Achievement.

LAW HONORS AND ACTIVITIES RECOGNITIONS

ORDER OF THE COIF

Selection to the Order of the Coif, as represented by the white circle on the graduate’s hat, is a recognition of outstanding scholarly achievement in law school. West Virginia University has been the home of a chapter of the Order of the Coif since 1925.

ORDER OF THE BARRISTERS

A national honorary organization, the Order of the Barristers, encourages oral advocacy and brief writing skills through effective law school appellate moot court programs. Members of the Marlyn E. Lugar Trial Association, the Moot Court Board, and students who have outstanding oral advocacy achievements are eligible for the award.

PATRICK DUFFY KOONTZ PRIZE

The Patrick Duffy Koontz Prize is a monetary prize awarded to West Virginia residents selected by the College of Law scholarship committee on the basis of scholarship, character, and leadership potential.

THOMAS N. CHAMBERS AWARD IN TAXATION

The Thomas N. Chambers Award in Taxation was established by the West Virginia Tax Institute in recognition of outstanding achievement by a student in tax law scholarship.

THE WEST VIRGINIA LAW REVIEW

The West Virginia Law Review publishes three scholarly issues each year, which regularly are cited by courts throughout the nation as an authoritative source of interpretation and explanation of the law. Candidates for the Law Review are selected on the basis of academic performance and legal research and writing skills following their first or second year in law school. Members of the Board elect the Editor-in-Chief, who appoints other executive editors. The West Virginia Law Review is the fourth oldest student-led law journal in the nation and was established in 1894.

MARLYN E. LUGAR TRIAL ASSOCIATION

The Marlyn E. Lugar Trial Association is an honorary society of law students selected based on their grades in Trial Advocacy. Participating students compete in intramural trials during the Fall of their third year and represent the WVU College of Law in external trial competitions during the Spring. The Association also sponsors and conducts the West Virginia Invitational trial competition, which is open to all students at the WVU College of Law.

MOOT COURT

The Moot Court Board manages the George C. Baker Cup intramural appellate moot court competition. Members of the WVU College of Law national and international moot court teams are selected from the members of the Board on the basis of competitions and represent the College throughout the area and the nation.

GENERAL CIVIL PRACTICE CLINIC

The General Civil Practice Clinic provides civil legal services to qualified clients with a concentration on family law, social security and other public benefits, property issues, and consumer debt relief along with other cases that provide good learning opportunities for our students.

THE INNOCENCE PROJECT

The Innocence Project brings together WVU’s College of Law and Forensics program to help exonerate prisoners who were wrongly convicted in West Virginia.

LOW INCOME TAXPAYER CLINIC

The Low Income Taxpayer Clinic provides information, advice, and representation on federal individual tax matters to low-income individuals. Unless closely tied to a controversy, the Tax Clinic does not assist in the preparation of current income tax returns.

CHILD AND FAMILY LAW CLINIC

Working with West Virginia children and families of limited income to promote their health, security, and future success, the Child and Family Law Clinic assists children and families with limited income who need free legal assistance in civil matters.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP LAW CLINIC

The Entrepreneurship Law Clinic offers start-up companies, small businesses, non-profits, and individuals legal services in areas of counseling for a product plan or business organization; licensing; employee and contractor agreements; intellectual property; financing and venture capital; planning and negotiation; dispute resolution; and generalized assistance in business formation, planning, and strategy.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND IMMIGRATION LAW CLINIC

The Human Rights and Immigration Law Clinic has served scores of clients throughout the West Virginia and western Pennsylvania region since 1996. The clinic serves foreign citizens who are facing deportation, asylum, and other immigration proceedings.
THE JUSTITIA OFFICIUM AWARD

The WVU College of Law Justitia Officium Award recognizes outstanding contributions and service to the legal profession and is the highest honor the College of Law bestows on an individual. Established in 1978, in commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the College of Law, the Justitia Officium Award is presented annually. An individual bronze plaque bearing the recipient’s name and the year the award was presented is mounted in the lobby of the WVU Law Center.

JUSTITIA OFFICIUM AWARD RECIPIENTS

CHARLES M. LOVE, III, ESQ.

Mr. Charles M. Love, III is currently employed at Bowles Rice McDavid Graff & Love LLP in the position of Partner. He is the Leader of the firm’s Litigation Practice Group.

Mr. Love serves as President of the West Virginia State Bar, and is President-Elect of The West Virginia Bar Association. He is a permanent member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference.

Mr. Love served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the West Virginia Housing Development Fund (1981 to 2003) and was a member and officer of the Board of Trustees of the Herbert J. Thomas Memorial Hospital. He is a Fellow of the American Bar Association, a Fellow of the West Virginia State Bar, and a member of the Executive Council of The West Virginia Bar Association. He has served as Chairman of the Legal Ethics Committee of the West Virginia State Bar; Chairman of the Visiting Committee of the College of Law of West Virginia University; and Chairman of the National Development Council of the College of Law of West Virginia University.

Mr. Love earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1962 and his law degree in 1965, both from West Virginia University.

He was admitted to practice in West Virginia in 1965, before the Court of Appeals for the United States Fourth Circuit in 1967, the United States Supreme Court in 1969, and the United States Tax Court in 1980. Mr. Love is a member of the Kanawha County Bar Association; the West Virginia State Bar; The West Virginia Bar Association; the American Bar Association; and the American Board of Trial Advocates.

ROBERT M. STEPTOE, JR., ESQ.

For over forty years, Bob Steptoe has focused his practice in the areas of labor and employment law and civil litigation. In addition to counseling clients, Mr. Steptoe has tried over one hundred jury and non-jury cases, and has argued approximately fifty appeals in the West Virginia Supreme Court and the United States Courts of Appeals. He serves as the Chief Executive Officer for Steptoe and Johnson.

Mr. Steptoe is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a permanent member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference, a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, an Advocate of the American Board of Trial Advocates, a Fellow of the West Virginia Bar Foundation, a member of the Association of Ski Defense Attorneys, a member of the AAA National Roster of Neutrals, and is recognized in The Best Lawyers in America in the fields of alternative dispute resolution, commercial litigation, labor and employment law. Mr. Steptoe is also recognized in the 2007 Chambers USA America’s Leading Lawyers for Business. He was named to Who’s Who in WV Business by The State Journal for 2007.

Within the legal profession, Mr. Steptoe has served as President of the West Virginia State Bar, President of the West Virginia Bar Association, and President of the West Virginia Bar Foundation. He has served as Adjunct Professor (Appellate Advocacy) at West Virginia University College of Law, and Chair of the Advisory Group for the Civil Justice Reform Act of 1990 (Northern District of West Virginia).

Within the community, Mr. Steptoe has served as President of the Harrison County Chamber of Commerce, President and Campaign Chair of the United Way of Harrison County, member of the West Virginia Ethics Commission, Board member of United Hospital Center, Inc., and Chairman of the Board of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce. He also serves as Trustee of the West Virginia Chapter of The Nature Conservancy.

Mr. Steptoe received his legal education at West Virginia University College of Law in 1970, where he was Associate Editor of the Law Review and a member of the National Moot Court Team. He received his undergraduate education at the University of Virginia in 1965, after which he was commissioned as an officer in the United States Naval Reserve and served two years on active duty.

RECESSIONAL

* Members of the audience may be seated during the processional.
 Members of the audience are requested to stand and remain at their places.
NOTE: Smoking is prohibited in the Coliseum.

Please join us for a reception to congratulate our graduates immediately following the ceremony in the Shell Building beside the Coliseum.

Graduates will have professional photos taken upon receiving their diplomas. Ordering instructions are available at http://commencement.wvu.edu.
GEORGE B. BENNETT

West Virginia University would like to recognize Dr. George B. Bennett with an honorary degree. Dr. Bennett has been a leading thinker and entrepreneur bringing his background in engineering and analytics to consult on national and global issues; including healthcare and education.

Dr. Bennett earned a bachelor’s degree in industrial engineering from West Virginia University in 1967 and a master’s degree (1970) and doctoral degree (1971) in industrial administration from Carnegie Mellon University.

In 1982, Dr. Bennett was inducted into the WVU Distinguished Alumni Academy of Industrial and Management Systems Engineering. Dr. Bennett serves on the board of directors of a number of organizations, including the Disease Management Association of America, the National Youth Science Foundation; and Urban Improv, a Boston-based not-for-profit organization focused on improving the odds for Boston’s inner city youth.

For more than 35 years Dr. Bennett has been a successful serial entrepreneur. Early in his career in 1973, he co-founded Bain and Company, a large top-tier international consulting firm, and Braxton Associates in 1976, a boutique strategy consulting firm with a reputation for innovation and creativity. Both companies are two highly regarded international strategy consulting firms that have dramatically impacted Fortune 500-scale firms around the world. Later in 1985, he co-founded Symmetrix, a management consulting firm that specialized in helping firms translate innovative strategies into cost-effective operating practices. He served as Symmetrix’s chairman and chief executive officer from 1985 to 1996.

Dr. Bennett also co-founded Health Dialog Services Corporation in 1997. The firm is a leading healthcare services company that is having a dramatic impact on the way healthcare is delivered in the U.S., several European countries; and Australia. Dr. Bennett served as both the CEO and chairman of the board from 1997 until January 2008 when the firm was sold to Bupa, a large British-owned global provider of healthcare services. He currently serves as chairman of the firm’s board of directors.

In the early 1980s, Dr. Bennett spent a year in Washington as a member of the Grace Commission, a commission created by President Ronald Reagan, to bring state-of-the-art business practices to the federal government. Bennett has remained active in Washington and has been an active participant in the ongoing debate regarding health reform.

West Virginia University feels that Dr. George B. Bennett has attained national and international pre-eminence in his field while provided distinguished leadership in society and philanthropic support of engineering at WVU.

HENRY T. YANG

West Virginia University would like to recognize Dr. Henry T. Yang with an honorary degree. Dr. Yang is an accomplished leader in higher education and the field of aeronautical engineering.

Henry T. Yang has served as the chancellor of the University of California, Santa Barbara since 1994. He was formerly the Neil A. Armstrong Distinguished Professor of Aeronautics and Astronautics at Purdue University, where he also served as the dean of engineering for 10 years. He received his B.S.C.E. degree from National Taiwan University, his master’s degree in structural engineering from West Virginia University, and his Ph.D. from Cornell University.

Dr. Yang has served on scientific advisory boards for various government agencies. He currently chairs the Association of Pacific Rim Universities, and is immediate past chair of the Association of American Universities. He also serves on the President’s Committee for the National Medal of Science and the Kavli Foundation board, and is chairman of the board for the Thirty Meter Telescope project.

Dr. Yang has authored or co-authored more than 170 articles for scientific journals, as well as a widely used textbook on finite element structural analysis. He has also served as P.I. or co-P.I. for 32 sponsored research grants, guided 53 Ph.D. theses, and received 13 outstanding undergraduate teaching awards. He continues to teach an undergraduate engineering course each year, and is currently supervising four Ph.D. students with support from National Science Foundation grants.

Dr. Yang is a member of the National Academy of Engineering and a Fellow of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, the American Society for Engineering Education, and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He has received numerous awards for his research, teaching, and service, including the Benjamin Garver Lamme gold medal from the American Society of Engineering Education and the 2008 Structures, Structural Dynamics, and Materials Award from the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics. He holds honorary doctorates from Purdue University, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, National Taiwan University, City University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, and now West Virginia University.

West Virginia University feels that Dr. Henry T. Yang has attained international pre-eminence in the fields of aerospace and structural engineering, as well as higher education, and is deserving of an honorary degree from the institution.
STUDENT AWARDS

Ralph M. Barnes Senior Scholastic Achievement Award
Established by the family of Ralph M. Barnes, an alumnus of the College of Engineering, to encourage, recognize, and reward superior academic performance, this award goes to the graduate with the highest grade point average during their junior and senior years while enrolled as a full-time student. Recipients will be announced at Commencement.

2011 WVU Foundation Outstanding Seniors
Each year the WVU Foundation selects WVU’s top graduating students based on a number of criteria, including academic achievement, honors and awards, public service, demonstrated leadership, collegiate work experience, reference and a narrative of value of the WVU undergraduate experience. This year’s WVU Foundation Outstanding Seniors from the College of Engineering and Mineral Resources are:

Derrick Banerjee, Mechanical Engineering
Ryan Coder, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
Zain Jafri, Biometrics Systems and Computer Science
Steven Rhodes, Mechanical Engineering
Spencer Teufel, Civil and Environment Engineering
Matthew Thompson, Chemical Engineering
Jennifer Weigand, Chemical Engineering
Justin West, Aerospace Engineering

ENGINEERS’ CREED
AS A PROFESSIONAL ENGINEER, I DEDICATE MY PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND SKILL TO THE ADVANCEMENT AND BETTERMENT OF HUMAN WELFARE. I PLEDGE:
TO GIVE THE UTMOST OF PERFORMANCE;
TO PARTICIPATE IN NONE BUT HONEST ENTERPRISE;
TO LIVE AND WORK ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF MAN AND THE HIGHEST STANDARDS OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT; TO PLACE SERVICE BEFORE PROFIT, THE HONOR AND STANDING OF THE PROFESSION BEFORE PERSONAL ADVANTAGE, AND THE PUBLIC WELFARE ABOVE ALL OTHER CONSIDERATIONS.
IN HUMILITY AND WITH NEED FOR DIVINE GUIDANCE, I MAKE THIS PLEDGE.

Adopted by National Society of Professional Engineers, June 1954

We would like to recognize Dr. Nancy McIntyre, Nomenclaturess
Fred T. Tattersall graduated with honors in 1970 from WVU’s College of Business and Economics with a B.S. in finance. He went on to serve as a senior vice president in the Fixed Income Division in what today is the Bank of America. He continued his career in investment management and in 1997 created the Tattersall Advisory Group, which currently manages more than $52 billion for institutional accounts. He retired from the business in June 2004 and is now chairman of 1607 Capital Partners, a Richmond-based investment management company established in 2007.

Tattersall currently serves on the WVU Foundation Board of Directors; the executive committee of the University of Richmond board; the Spider Management Company committee, which oversees the University of Richmond’s endowment fund; the Virginia Museum Board of Trustees and the Hollywood Cemetery Board of Directors. He served as the past chair of The Community Foundation serving Richmond and central Virginia. In addition, he recently ended 20 years of service to the Jenkins Foundation.

DR. FRANKLIN E. BOTELE

Franklin E. Boteler (Frank) currently serves as the Assistant Director of the Institute of Bioenergy, Climate and Environment (IBCE) in the USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture. IBCE programs advance science through awarding approximately $300 million per year in grants to support research, education, and extension in sustainable bioenergy, adaptation/mitigation of agriculture and natural resources to climate change and variability, sustainable natural resources, and environmental concerns.

Previously, Dr. Boteler held progressively responsible positions with the North Carolina, Idaho, and Washington State Parks Systems. In Washington he functioned as the chief operating officer responsible for 1000 FTE’s (including 250 commissioned park rangers), 125 parks, a $100 million operating budget, and an $80 million capital development budget. He regularly participated in cabinet meetings of Governor Locke in Washington and Governor Andrus in Idaho, prepared briefing documents and gave presentations to policy setting boards and commissions, and testified before state legislative committees.

Dr. Boteler was a tenured associate professor in the West Virginia University Division of Forestry performing research and teaching in forest resources management. His research work was supported by the National Park Service, the USDA Forest Service, and the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources which he worked with in setting the original carrying capacity and safety regulations for whitewater use of the Cheat, New, and Gauley Rivers.

Dr. Boteler holds a doctorate and masters from the Pennsylvania State University School of Forest Resources and a B.S. in psychology from the University of Maryland. He has completed substantial executive management training including a four week in-residence training on executive leadership at Federal Executive Institute, two weeks in residence at the Washington State Executive Managers Program, the North Carolina Certified Public Manager Program, and numerous courses from the Kennedy School of Government Studies at Harvard and the Brookings Institution.

Frank is an avid outdoors person who enjoys skiing in British Columbia, mountain climbing, road biking, backpacking, and river running. He has climbed Mt. Rainier and is currently in training to climb Mt. Denali. His wife, a WVU graduate, is a reference librarian and their son, born in the WVU Hospital, is a recent graduate of Western Washington University.

William Mase earned his doctorate in public health from the University of Kentucky College of Public Health. He earned his Master of Public Health degree from The Ohio State University in health services, management, and policy and a Master of Arts degree in sociology from West Virginia University. He completed dual bachelor’s degrees, psychology and sociology, at Wright State University. At WVU, Mase’s research focused on crime and justice studies with an emphasis on criminality and gender-based differences, specifically developing models to better understand female criminality.

Dr. Mase joined the University of Cincinnati faculty in 2008, serving as an assistant professor and director of the MPH Program in the College of Medicine, Department of Public Health Sciences. Prior to joining the UC faculty, he served on the faculty of the Wright State University School of Medicine for 16 years. In 2010, Mase received a five-year Health Research Services Administration grant award as co-principal investigator with colleagues at The Ohio State University to advance statewide efforts with the Ohio Public Health Training Center (2010 – 2014). Additional grant funding in 2010-2011 included: an award from Proctor and Gamble to advance workforce-based health promotion initiatives, a technology-based educational grant in collaboration with the University of Cincinnati and The Ohio State University, a contract from the Association of Health Commissioners to evaluate state-wide H1N1 response, and a contract from the Ohio Department of Health to conduct a Workforce Competency-based Needs Assessment. Additionally, Mase has received two Public Health Systems and Services Research grants from the University of Kentucky and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Dr. Mase’s research focuses on public health workforce development. In 2007 and 2008, he was awarded two investigator initiated research grants from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to study the relationship between employee-supervisor trust relationships and differential effects of race, ethnicity, and gender. His work in community and public health has been supported through grants from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Ohio Department of Health, the Ohio Board of Regents, the Ohio Department of Mental Health, the Corporation for National Service, the United States Department of Education, and a number of community and non-profit foundations. He has published in a number of public health journals and currently has an epidemiology book chapter in-press.

BOB HUGGINS (*78 MS)

Bob Huggins, a native of Morgantown, W. Va., is a two-time Academic All-American, and graduated from the College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences, magna cum laude, in 1977. He received his master's in health administration from WVU in 1978. Huggins was a three-year letterman for the Mountaineers from 1975-1977 and was named MVP helping the basketball team to an 18-11 record, the team's highest win total in nine seasons.

Bob Huggins was introduced as WVU's 21st men's basketball coach in April of 2007. In his first season at WVU, Huggins took the Mountaineers to the NCAA Sweet 16, becoming the first Mountaineer coach to take a team that far in NCAA tournament play in his first season. With 26 victories, he won more games in his first year than any other coach in WVU history. After finishing the season with a No. 17 ranking, Bob Huggins was named state coach of the year by the W. Va. State Sportswriters Association. In 2008-2009, Bob Huggins led the Mountaineers to 23 victories in his second season at WVU, advancing to the NCAA tournament for the second year in a row. Last year, Huggins guided West Virginia to one of the most memorable seasons in school history. The Mountaineers reached the NCAA Final Four for the first time since 1959 and won their first BIG EAST championship. WVU recorded a school record 31 victories and also posted a school-best 13 BIG EAST victories, finishing the season ranked No.3 in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll. For the third year in a row, Huggins was named state coach of the year by the West Virginia State Sports Writers Association.

Bob Huggins, 57, has compiled a 670-241 (.736) record entering his 29th season as a head coach, which includes stints at Walsh College (1980-83), Akron (1984-1989), Cincinnati (1989-2005), Kansas State (2006-07) and West Virginia (2007-present). He ranks fourth in total victories and 10th in winning percentage among active Division I head coaches. A proven success as a program builder, recruiter and game strategist who has won 670 games as a collegiate head coach, Bob Huggins has directed his alma mater to 80 victories, the 2010 NCAA Final Four, the 2010 BIG EAST championship and back-to-back-to-back appearances in the NCAA tournament during his first three seasons in Morgantown.

Grads will have professional photos taken upon receiving their diplomas. Ordering instructions are available at http://commencement.wvu.edu.

Brooke Gladstone started out in print journalism, writing on defense policy, strip-mining, broadcasting and cable TV. Her freelance pieces have appeared in the London Observer, the Boston Globe, the Washington Post and the American Journalism Review among others. She also covered public broadcasting for Current and wrote and edited theater, film and music reviews for The Washington Weekly.

In 1987, NPR’s Scott Simon asked Gladstone to fill in as senior editor for his still-new program, “Weekend Edition Saturday.” Eventually they gave her the job, and she soon became senior editor of the NPR newsmagazine, “All Things Considered.”

Gladstone was awarded a Knight Fellowship at Stanford in 1991, and a year later she was in Russia, reporting on the bloody insurgency of the Russian Parliament and other stories for NPR.

In 1995, NPR created its brand new media beat and gave it to Gladstone, who covered it for six years from NPR’s New York bureau in midtown Manhattan, until she was tapped by WNYC several subway stops downtown to help re-launch “On the Media.”

The program was reborn in January of 2001. “On the Media” has since more than tripled its audience and won several awards, including the Edward R. Murrow Awards for feature reporting and investigative reporting, the National Press Club’s Arthur Rowse Award for Press Criticism and a Peabody Award for its body of work.

Gladstone also has won several awards, including an Overseas Press Club Award, a Peabody and the Milwaukee Press Club’s Sacred Cat Award for lifetime achievement. She plans to release her new book, “The Influencing Machine: Brooke Gladstone on the Media,” in May 2011.
