AMBASSADORS AND VOLUNTEERS
Gold and Blue Student Ambassadors and University volunteers will be available to assist you during Commencement. Be sure to ask them any questions you may have. Look for students wearing gold polo shirts with the GBSA insignia and adults wearing official WVU name tags.

ACCOMMODATIONS
If you made arrangements with WVU’s Office of Accessibility Services, please follow the instructions that were provided to you. If you did not make arrangements prior to Commencement, a staff member from the Office of Accessibility Services will be happy to assist you. Accessible seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

COURTESY
West Virginia University asks that guests remain in their seats. For the safety and security of the participants, guests are not permitted to approach the stage to take personal photos of, present gifts to, or congratulate the graduates. Air horns or other noise-making devices are forbidden to be used at any time. Please turn your cell phone to ‘silent’ and remember that graduates will remain with their class for the duration of the ceremony. Your cooperation is much appreciated.

DIPLOMAS
Graduates will receive a WVU diploma cover as they are individually recognized. Diplomas will be mailed to graduates in the weeks following the ceremony. Please contact the Office of the University Registrar at registrar@mail.wvu.edu or (304) 293-5355 if you have any questions.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION
In the case of an emergency, event staff will guide guests and graduates to the nearest exit. If medical attention is needed, EMS is available to assist. Please seek out a Gold and Blue Student Ambassador or other staff member to assist you.

FLORAL SALES
Flowers are available for purchase. A variety of options come in gold and blue packaging. Cash only. Proceeds benefit WVU’s Horticulture Club and Plant and Soil Sciences Club.

FEEDBACK
Following Commencement, a survey will be posted at graduation.wvu.edu to gather feedback. WVU encourages graduates, participants, and guests to complete this online form.

LOST AND FOUND
Please call (304) 293-7132 to make inquiries about any lost and found items. Unclaimed items will be retained for 90 days and then donated to an appropriate organization.

PHOTOGRAPHY
WVU is pleased to announce its partnership with GradImages to capture the special memories of Commencement. A photograph of each student will be taken as he or she crosses the stage. Additional shots may also be offered. Graduates will be sent electronic and hard copies of their photo proofs. All electronic communication will be private and secure and will be sent to the e-mail address indicated by the graduate. Electronic proofs can be expected within 24 hours of the conclusion of each ceremony. For complete information, please visit www.gradimages.com.

Commencement Traditions

THE SEAL
West Virginia University’s seal was adopted by the WVU Board of Regents on June 15, 1869. The Regents’ original, handwritten resolution is located in the University Archives at the Wise Library. The Greek motto in the inner circle translates to: “Add to your faith virtue and to virtue knowledge.” The Latin verse in the outer circle translates to: “Seal of the West Virginia University. Established 7 February, 1867.” The hills depicted behind Woodburn Circle reflect the institution’s stability and a rising sun indicates its prosperity.

THE MACE
The mace is a symbolic tradition that originated during the Middle Ages. The ornamental staff of authority is brought to the platform by the University Marshal, who signifies the beginning of the ceremony by tapping it three times and placing it in its holder. The mace used in official ceremonies at West Virginia University was handcrafted by a WVU professor. It represents the official authority of the University president and precedes him or her at academic ceremonies, including Commencement and inaugurations. When the president is not in attendance, smaller batons are used to signify the designation of authority.

THE REGALIA
The history of academic regalia worn today dates to the Middle Ages. The oldest universities of northern Europe evolved from ecclesiastical institutions where both faculty and students were regarded as part of the clergy and dressed in clerical garb. The head covering of modern academic costume was developed from the skullcap worn by the clergy in cold weather to protect their tonsured heads. At universities, this skullcap acquired a point on top, which gradually evolved into a tassel. The bonnet with tassel is still worn by some, but it has largely been replaced by the more familiar mortarboard.

The gown worn today seems to have been borrowed from the habit worn by Benedictine monks. No trimming is found on bachelor’s or master’s gowns, but for those holding doctoral degrees, the gown is faced down the front and trimmed on the sleeves with velvet.

Today’s hood is colored according to the scholarly field of the individual and bears the official colors of the institution that conferred the degree. WVU’s ceremonial regalia consists of a blue gown with blue velvet trim, a gold and blue hood, and a blue hat. This regalia is worn by members of the platform party, special guests, and members of the administration.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSIONAL
The sequence of the processional is as follows: members of the platform party, deans, faculty, degree candidates, honored guests, and the University president.

THE MARSHALS
The tradition of academic marshals comes from storied English universities. The Grand Marshal is the chief protocol officer who coordinates the ceremonial traditions of Commencement, including the processional and recessional. The Grand Marshal is also responsible for the school’s relics, including the mace and batons. University marshals are typically members of the faculty. Schools and colleges may also select their own faculty and student marshals to help facilitate their individual ceremonies.

Kenneth D. Gray, Major General, U.S. Army, Retired, currently serves as Vice President for Student Affairs at West Virginia University. He leads programs, services, activities, and resources that respond to the concerns and needs of West Virginia University students. The Office of Student Affairs promotes a positive student-centered campus culture, creating an environment where students can grow personally, intellectually, and realize their dreams.

He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from West Virginia State College in 1966, and was commissioned a second lieutenant from the Reserve Officers Training Corps. In 1969, he received his Juris Doctor degree from West Virginia University’s College of Law and entered active duty in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General’s (JAG) Corps. He served in various assignments during his military career, culminating with his promotion to Major General and service as The Assistant Judge Advocate General of the Army from 1993-1997. He is the first and only African-American General Officer in the history of the Army Judge Advocate General’s Corps since its creation in 1775.

His military awards include the U.S. Army Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, and the Army Achievement Medal. He has also been inducted into the West Virginia State College ROTC Hall of Fame, received the Justicia Officium Award (the highest award given by the College of Law at West Virginia University), inducted into the Academy of Distinguished Alumni at West Virginia University, and received the National Bar Association’s Gertrude E. Rush Distinguished Service Award for outstanding leadership and devoted service. He is also a WVU College of Law Dean’s Partner.

At West Virginia University, the Kenneth D. Gray Leadership Award was created by the West Virginia University Student Organization’s office in Gray’s honor and is awarded on an annual basis to an outstanding student leader who exhibits exemplary leadership skills. Gray has also received the WVU Outstanding Alumni Award and was awarded the Richard T. Feller Outstanding Alumni Award for Distinguished Service to Students. He has been recognized as a Distinguished West Virginian by former Governors Caperton and Underwood and was selected as the 2011 NAACP Administrator of the Year by the WVU student Collegiate Chapter of the NAACP. He is also the recipient of the Strong Men and Women: Excellence in Leadership Award presented by Dominion Energy in Richmond, Virginia. He was recently inducted into the West Virginia All Black Schools Sports and Academic Hall of Fame.

In November 2013, the National Bar Association, the nation’s oldest and largest association of African-American lawyers and judges in the United States, named a new and distinguished award in Gray’s honor: The Major General Kenneth D. Gray Excellence in Jurisprudence Award. This award will recognize a leader, jurist, or practitioner who has exhibited distinctive and exemplary service to their community or nation.

Gray is a member of the West Virginia Bar and Texas Bar. He is an American Bar Association Foundation Fellow, a West Virginia Bar Foundation Fellow, and a member of the Texas Bar Foundation. He is also past chair of the American Bar Association’s Government and Public Sector Lawyers Division and past co-chair of the Association of Public Land Grant University’s Council on Student Affairs and the Council’s Executive Committee.

Dear Graduates,

It is my honor to officially welcome you to our alumni family! Today you join more than 190,000 graduates worldwide who share a deep passion and loyalty to their alma mater.

We hope you will take a moment to reflect on your time at West Virginia University. Before leaving, stop by one of your favorite spots. Make sure you grab your smartphone and capture these special moments with friends and family. Hug your friends.

This is an exciting time in your life. As you begin this new journey – whether that is grad school, a new job, or volunteer work – remember that you are forever a Mountaineer. You will always have a home at our beautiful Erickson Alumni Center, and we hope you won’t be a stranger. Visit often.

We are pleased to offer your first year membership in the WVU Alumni Association at no cost to you, so take advantage of our programs and services geared toward keeping you connected to and engaged in the life of WVU (alumni.wvu.edu).

As a graduate, you have access to a strong network of more than 100 chapters and constituent groups who provide professional and social networking opportunities, career advice, volunteer activities, and opportunities to reconnect with your fellow alumni. We will keep you up to date on campus activities, news, and other events via electronic communication and social media. The Alumni Association and other University units have a strong presence on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn - join us!

The Mountaineer Connection (www.mountaineerconnection.com) is your one-stop location for special communication, information on news and events, a WVU e-mail address, and other information. It’s also a place where you can update your personal information and share your successes with classmates.

Don’t leave WVU behind. Use our “new grad” webpage, which includes great information and tools to help you maneuver through the next leg of your journey (http://alumni.wvu.edu/new-grad).

Again, congratulations on this wonderful achievement. We are glad to have you as part of our Mountaineer family.
